100 Points required for Australian Champion Title.
~~100 Points required for Foundation Champion Title.~~
400 Points are required for Australian Grand Champion Title.
There is no time limit on obtaining points. All ages eligible for points.
Only AMGR/MGBAA Registered animals aged 3 years or over may apply for Australian Champion & Australian Grand Champion status with points collected from approved MGBAA shows.

Australian Champion Title: An animal must accrue a minimum of 100 points, including at least three Best of Gender awards, OR one Best of Breed title earned under at least 3 different judges. A total of 20 championship points may be gained at any one show, or 25 points from any one show where the animal has won BIS. Show points will only be considered when obtained in the below Champion, Best of Breed & Best In Show Classes. A maximum of 50 points may be accrued by the animal up to 2 years of age, the balance being obtained after 2 years of age. Animals may also obtain up to a total of 20 points from progeny throughout the goats show career. (Note: Best of Gender, Best of Breed and Best in Show must include a minimum of two other animals – minimum of 8 points to count towards Australian Champion title).

Australian Grand Champion Title: Australian Champion animals must accrue a minimum of 400 points including at least five Best of Breed titles earned under at least 5 different judges. A total of 20 championship points may be gained at any one show or 25 championship points from a show where the animal has one BIS. Show points will only be considered when obtained in the below Champion, Best of Breed & Best In Show Classes, and previous Australian Champion classes. Animals may also obtain up to a total of 100 points from progeny throughout the goats show career. (Note: Best of Breed and Best in Show must include a minimum of two other animals – minimum of 8 points to count towards the Permanent Grand Champion title).

~~Foundation Champion Title: An animal must accrue a minimum of 100 points under at least 3 different judges. A total of 20 championship points may be gained at any one show, or 25 points from any one show where the animal has won BIS. Show points will only be considered when obtained in the below Champion Classes or earned from Best of Breed or Best In Show awards prior to becoming foundation animal. A maximum of 50 points may be accrued by the animal up to 2 years of age, the balance being obtained after 2 years of age. Animals may also obtain up to a total of 20 points from progeny throughout the goats show career.~~
